About the photographs

Every photograph in this calendar is by Lauren Baier, from her ongoing project trashscapes. For about ten years she has photographed the accidental arrangements of debris she comes across on New York City streets, mostly in the East Village, letting utility covers and sidewalk seams frame whatever was left behind.

In 2025 she gathered a selection from the archive into a photozine, trashscapes, vol. 1, sold at Village Works bookstore in the East Village. Prints from the series are available on request.

Baier is a multidisciplinary experience designer with a personal art practice. She also leads trashscapes noticing walks through the neighborhood; the next is the Noticing and Photo Walk on Saturday, October 17 at 11:00 am, pay what you want.

Before you go

Listings were compiled October 6, 2026 from the r/EastVillage calendar and venue pages. Prices and times change, so confirm with the venue. Weekly regulars are detailed once here rather than under each date, and may skip a week, especially on Halloween. The two Book Club Bar clubs repeat monthly on the calendar; confirm October dates with the bar. TNC is Theater for the New City.
